

BIOGRAPHY

Terina Kalogeropoulos Armenakis

Mrs Terina Kalogeropoulos-Armenakis is Greek, born and raised in Addis Ababa to Greek parents. She acquired her Bachelor of Economics, BSc. in the UK and attended a Master Degree, at Reading University on Economics and Politics of the EU.

Became a certified stockbroker in NY obtained the "Series 7" Certificate and also specialized in the bond markets with New York Institute of Finance. Trained with Newbridge Securities in New York and Scrimgeour Vickers in London.

She launched her career in the Banking sector working for several years in banks such as Banque Indosuez London and Citibank in Athens. She got involved in the Real Estate sector at an early age investing and managing successfully family owned real estate portfolio in Greece, UK and recently in Romania. In 2007 she founded Stahi Real Estate S.A. in Greece and specialized in up market property investment projects.

Mrs. Kalogeropoulos Armenakis was appointed Honorary Consul General of Ethiopia in Greece in 1993 and she still serves in this position. She is a Board Member of the Hellenic African Chamber of Commerce, and she was elected President of the Consular Corps in Greece in 2008 until 2014.

She is a founding member of several cultural and charity organizations in Greece, including the Drought Committee in Athens, which constructed a dam in Wollayita Zone, Ethiopia, the Support Ethiopian Children Association "Lalibela", the Friendship among Nations and Friends of Marathon Association.

She is the researcher and writer of the book "A Greek Folk Journey- Travel, Culture & Gastronomy". It is written on a monthly calendar form in cooperation with the Greek Folklore Association. Its contents are considered a unique research for the promotion and perpetuation of the Greek traditions, products and dishes by region.

Mrs. Kalogeropoulos Armenakis speaks English, Amharic and French. She is married and is a mother to three sons.